Report on Program on Ganesh Chaturthi conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Event Detail-

Date: 02.09.2019

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar

No of Participants: UG & PG 35 students.

Objective:

1. Teach the students about the festivals: Use presentations or tales of Lord Ganesha's birth to teach the kids about the holiday's significance.
2. Sing and dance: Our pupils are welcome to dance while listening to the songs of Lord Ganesha.
3. Teamwork: Students might work together to create plays, competitions, or decorations.

Program:

1. The College was to be decorated with colored paper, flowers, leaves, candles, lights, and lamps by the student council.
2. With a deep sense of dedication, every participant prayed, trusting that the Lord would send his presence to take away all of life's challenges and problems.
3. There was a Havan, a magnificent Aarti, and a Puspanjali. Everyone will receive some prasad.
4. Various traditional dishes and drinks were offered during a Community Bhoj arranged.
5. A large number of participants and the pupils put on a variety of dance routines while donning eye-catching, vibrant costumes.

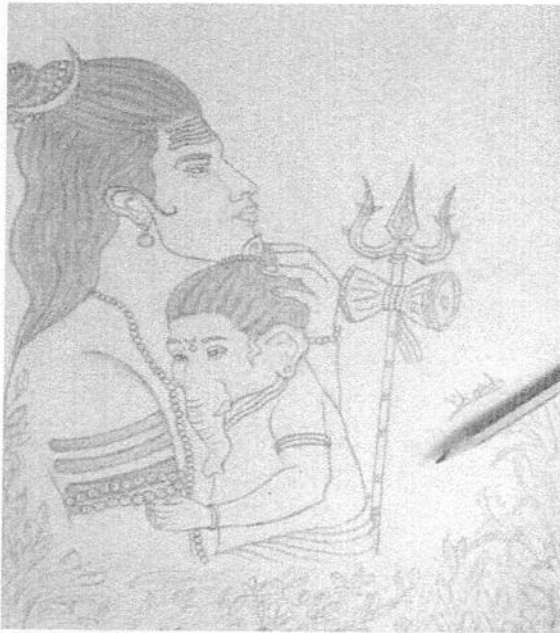

Outcome:

1. The program builds group cohesiveness and brings people together, breaking the monotony of routine and energizing the body, mind, and spirit.
2. The festive awakened devotion, creativity, understanding, and learning amongst students.

The Report on the Program of Krishna Janmashtami celebration conducted by Vivek
PG College, Kalwar

Event Details

Date: 23-08-2019

Time: 10:00 AM -2:00 PM

Venue: College auditorium

No of Participants: UG & Pg 40 students.

Objective:

1. Students can better appreciate cultural diversity, moral principles, historical context, and artistic expressions by celebrating Krishna Janmashtami.
2. To allow students to broaden their perspectives and discover the richness of spirituality and human culture outside textbooks.

Program

1. Decorations: Festoons, colorful flowers, and traditional rangoli were used to decorate the college grounds exquisitely. Lord Krishna's pictures were used to construct a unique altar, and traditional decorations created a vibrant, dynamic environment.
2. Cultural Performances: A series of cultural performances kicked off the festival. Through devotional songs, dances, and performances depicting events from Krishna's life, students displayed their artistic abilities. A dramatic portrayal of Krishna's early adventures was highly appreciated and was the event's high point.
3. Religious Observances: The college's spiritual committee held a special puja (prayer). In addition to offering prayers and participating in the aarti (a rite of worship with light), students and staff also expressed their dedication. They asked for blessings of peace and prosperity.
4. Prasad Distribution Delicious Prasad (offerings) were prepared and distributed among the attendees. Traditional sweets and snacks were served, adding to the festive spirit. Students enjoyed their tasty Prasadam
5. Interactive Sessions & Short Quiz: An engaging session on the significance of Krishna Janmashtami and the teachings of Lord Krishna was conducted. This session aimed to educate participants about the cultural and spiritual importance of the festival. Winners were awarded with prizes who responded correctly.

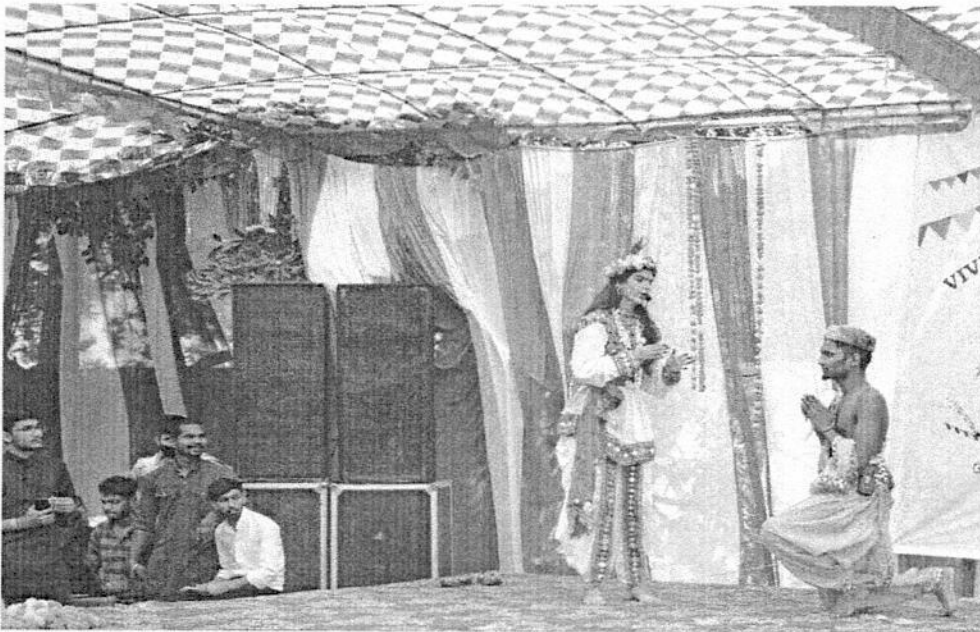

Outcomes:

1. To sum up, celebrating Krishna Janmashtami at college is more than just a party; it's a chance to teach cultural awareness, promote morals, and make enduring student memories.
2. Students actively participate in reenacting Kan's vadh and Krishna Leela's through drama and plays, absorbing the values of truth, courage, and righteousness. They have a creative way of expressing how they understand the celebration through the artistic rangoli and craft workshops, which help children develop an awareness of our culture's visual elements.
3. By giving the characters and events life, the storytelling sessions help the audience engage with the epic on a deeper level. The Janmashtami quiz promotes learning and investigation, rendering the celebration a stimulating intellectual event.
