Report on Mahashivratri celebration in Vivek PG College

Event Details –Maha Shivratri

Date:- 07 March 2023

Venue:-Vivek P G College, Kalwar

No of Participants: 15

Objective: -

- To introduce Cultural Awareness: It aids students in comprehending and appreciating the rich cultural legacy and customs of Hindu holidays.
- To develop Spiritual Development: The festival will promote mindfulness and inner calm by providing opportunities for students to partake in spiritual activities like prayer and meditation.
- To develop Unity and Inclusivity: Students from different backgrounds feel more united and inclusive when celebrating.

Program:-

- Maha Shivratri's program was organized on the college campus. It was presided over by Dr. Sunita Bediwal. The lamp was lit by director Vishal Dhaka. Manoj Chaudhary conducted the program.
- Students put on plays and skits that told tales from Shiva's life, such as his union with Parvati or his part in the Samudra Manthan, which involves churning the ocean.
- Puja (worship) ritual in which students contribute by praying to a Shivalinga. Chanting and bhajans (devotional songs) were done.
- Yoga and Meditation Classes were organized to assist students in connecting with the festival's spiritual side. This involved by repeating mantras like "Om Namah Shivaya" and participating in guided meditations.

Outcomes:-

- Pupils better comprehend Maha Shivaratri's spiritual and cultural significance. This promotes tolerance and admiration for other people's customs and develops a sense of Cultural Awareness among students.
- Students will learn virtues like selflessness, commitment, and the value of inner quiet and reflection by celebrating Maha Shivaratri.

Report on the "Program of HOLI Celebration"

Event Details

Date: 04 March 2023

Location: Vivek P G College Ground

No of Participants: UG &PG 200 Students.

Objective:

Holi is a Hindu festival celebrating love, rebirth, and rejuvenation. It is also known as the Hindu festival of colors. It's celebrated in India, Nepal, and other South Asian countries, as well as parts of the Western world, and typically takes place in March. The festival has cultural and religious significance and is celebrated for biological, mythological, and social relevance.

Program:

Play with colors - The most common thing when celebrating Holi is using colors and Gulal. People smear Gulal and color at each other, which is playful. People gather in open spaces, smear each other with Gulal, and celebrate the day with immense joy and happiness.

Outcome:-

- Holi brings people together, transcending social and cultural boundaries.
- The vibrant colors and festive atmosphere spread joy and happiness among participants.
- Holi strengthens social relationships and creates new ones through shared experiences.

Event Details: Annual Function

Date: 13-02-2020

Venue: College Ground

No of Participants: UG & PG 55 students

Objectives:

1. To provide opportunities for students to showcase their talent to a large audience.
2. To provide a platform for students to present their stellar performances and be honored for their academic and co-curricular achievements.
3. To demonstrate the coordination and cooperation of students and staff members.

Program

1. The cultural department of the college organized the program. The college auditorium was wholly decorated with lights and flowers.
2. The program was inaugurated by lighting the lamp at the hands of the director, sir. Simultaneously, the principal, sir, and senior-most teachers also lit the lamp.
3. Dr. NK Bhakar, Principal of the College, read out the annual report of the college and encouraged the students and the staff members to emulate the achievements of the college every year
4. The cultural show began with the goddess Saraswati's prayer. After that, the students of different classes performed various programs individually. Students from all classes participated in this program. First of all, the children of the students of B.Sc performed in a beautiful group dance program, and they sang many poems. After that, a group of commerce students also played a little drama scene about the importance of education. After this, the students presented various programs like dance, drama, fashion shows, etc.
5. The director, Sir Mr. Vishal Dhaka, gave a speech on the importance of UPSC attempts to clear the examination and also talked about future lectures organized in college by some institute professionals who will guide students in preparing for UPSC exams. He inspired students to make careers in civil service

Outcome

1. This event gives new enthusiasm and inspiration to all the students.
2. Students showcase their talents, build confidence, manage admissions, and learn to collaborate.
3. Students get motivated to fight for the most challenging exam of UPSC.
4. Achievers were felicitated for their accomplishments in the academic year, which motivated them to perform well in the future.

Report on Program on Republic Day conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 26th January 2023

Venue: Auditorium & College ground of Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Participate-

Objectives

1. To develop patriotism and national pride among students: Remind pupils of the sacrifices made by freedom fighters and the significance of the Constitution instills in them a sense of patriotism and national pride.
2. To develop Awareness: Instilling a feeling of civic duty in students, Republic Day celebrations teach them the importance of the Indian Constitution and the democratic principles it protects.
3. To develop Cultural legacy: To help students understand and respect other people's cultures and traditions, the celebrations frequently feature cultural performances that showcase India's rich and varied legacy.

Program

1. Flag hosting: The national song was played first, then the ceremonial hosting of the Indian tricolor was done by director Mr Vishal Dhaka.
2. March Past and Drills: NCC cadets and other student organizations put on march pasts and drills to demonstrate discipline and cohesion.
3. Patriotic Drama and Skits were organized for students to perform plays or skits illustrating significant historical occurrences in India.

Outcomes:

1. These events honor a historic occasion but aim to mold future people's minds into knowledgeable, accountable, and patriotic individuals.
2. These exercises encourage our students to discover and comprehend the real meaning of freedom, instill a sense of patriotism in our students, and make them love their nation.
3. Through various activities, children learned about the history and rich cultural diversity of Indian civilization.

Report on the Program of World Population Day conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 02.12.2022

Venue: Ground Vivek P G College, Kalwar & Auditorium.

No of Participants: UG & PG students 65 students

Objective:

1. To Promote Sustainable Practices Among Students: Promote the adoption of environmentally beneficial practices such as energy conservation, recycling, and minimizing the usage of plastics.
2. To Involve the Community: Hold community-building activities such as workshops, clean-up drives, and tree planting with neighbors, instructors, and students.
3. To Increase Student Awareness: To inform students and faculty about the several forms of pollution (soil, water, air, and noise), as well as the detrimental impacts they have on the environment and public health.

Program:

1. Lectures: Dr Indu Bala Choudhary talked about pollution's origins, effects, and solutions. Topics included plastic waste, sustainable practices, and air and water contamination.
2. Organised campus cleanup initiatives called "Clean-Up Drives," which inspired students to participate in the area's parks, streets, and other areas' upkeep.
3. Tree-planting activities were planned. Planting programs were organized to promote vegetation growth and educate students about the importance of trees in mitigating pollution.

Outcomes:

1. Students can take up more ecologically friendly practices, like reducing plastic usage and energy conservation.
2. These exercises make the classroom cleaner and help students develop a sense of leadership and responsibility.

Report on the Program of Navratri celebration conducted by Vivek P G College,

Kalwar

Date: 05.11.2022

Venue: Ground Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Objective:

- One of the most striking objectives of playing Dandiya Nights is their ability to unite students from diverse backgrounds. It's a true celebration of unity and camaraderie, breaking down barriers and fostering a sense of belonging. This inclusivity is a testament to the power of culture and community to unite Students.
- To provide positive energy among students, it is said that the sound produced by dandiya brings positive energy to everyone.
- To make students aware of traditional folk dance while celebrating the program.

Program:

- The speakers announced the first songs of the evening at 5:30 p.m., telling the students to lose themselves in the world of celebration and forget about their dull existence.
- The lights were turned down to create an exciting ambiance, and everyone danced to the catchy Dandiya beats! The upbeat and joyful Dandiya night began with the rhythms of a garba song honoring Goddess Durga.
- Every student present, including the teaching and non-teaching staff, participated in the festivities by tapping into the fantastic music. Teachers and students were shown to have a close bond. A large family was joyfully thumping their toes to the upbeat music. The DJ hooked the guests to the dance floor throughout the evening by spinning a mix of lively Bollywood and traditional dandiya and taking the well-known word "again!" out of their mouths.

Outcomes:

The function proved a day of bonding, where the gathering, the celebration, and the dance etched a unique combination, signifying the diversity of Indian culture in students.

Everyone soaked in the moment together, irrespective of whether they were seniors, first-year students, faculty, or our Principal, which gave a sense of togetherness among everyone.

Dear Faculties and students,

Diwali is the festival of lights. Diwali is India's most well-known and most significant event. This celebration is held in honor of Lord Rama, who returned to Ayodhya after a fourteen-year exile. Hindus light lamps and adorn their homes with rangoli on this day. On this day, the lights represent the triumphs of truth and light over darkness. This day teaches us to avoid bad habits, act reasonably, and stay on the correct path to live happy lives.

To commemorate this day, the College is organizing a Diwali celebration program on the college premises. The college will also organize a competition where three students will be chosen and rewarded for their ingenuity and innovative ideas.

Decorate Diyas or candles (scented or unscented). Or make lanterns, draw eco-friendly Rangolis, and submit their names to Dr Suman Bediwal (HOD of the Zoology department)

Report on the Program of Diwali celebration conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 19.10.2022

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Objective:

- To help improve understanding of cultural practices and the Diwali holiday.
- To raise awareness about Diwali's detrimental effects on the environment.
- To promote environmentally responsible behaviors to lessen noise and air pollution on Diwali. Encourage pupils to express themselves creatively by requiring them to engage in various extracurricular activities.
- To develop student organizational abilities by allowing them to organize, plan, and carry out various tasks,

Program:

- Our College auditorium was fully decorated with lights, candles, and artwork from eco-friendly products.
- Various slogans were written on the wall of our auditorium about the cause of air pollution, light over darkness, good over evil, etc.
- Various programs were presented one after the other by the students, such as groups of students performing a beautiful story drama on the theme "On the return of King Rama to Ayodhya after defeating Ravana."
- The students organize quiz games, and those who score high on the quiz get a prize.
- The honorable Principal of the college gave an energetic speech on eco-friendly Diwali.
- The honorable principal last requested that crackers not be used on this Diwali as they cause lots of air pollution, noise pollution, and damage to animals living on streets and birds.

Outcomes:

- The celebrations helped students come out of their comfort zone and showcase their talents, skills, and creativity in different forms. Students enjoyed their day and learned along with fun as they dressed up in colorful ethnic wear to celebrate the festival of light.

Report on the Program of Dusherra celebration conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 04.10.2022

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar.

No of Participants: UG & PG 11 students.

Objective:

- To develop Cultural Awareness of Dussehra among students, a festival that celebrates the triumph of good over evil, as represented by Lord Rama's defeat of Ravana.
- To develop Ethics and values among students by imparting virtues like obedience, humility, honesty, and respect—all of which are central themes in the legends related to Dussehra.
- To spread happiness and celebration throughout the campus, fostering a lively and upbeat environment for everybody.

Program:

- A theatrical production of the Ramayana at the Ram Lila. The central tale of Dussehra, which is about Lord Rama defeating Ravana, was acted out by students. Burning of effigies: Make and set ablaze representations of Ravana, Meghnad, and Kumbhakarna. This is a conventional method of signifying the triumph of good over evil.
- Cultural Dance and Music were Organized as a cultural evening that included musical performances honoring the essence of Dussehra, and traditional dances like Garba were performed.
- Storytelling Sessions were organized, and students recited Dussehra-related stories, such as the legends of Goddess Durga's conquest of Mahishasura or Lord Rama's.

Outcomes:

The tales and customs surrounding Dussehra impart moral principles, including bravery, honesty, and the significance of standing up for what is right. These lessons can mold pupils' personalities and direct their actions.

Report on Programme of Fresher Day program conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 27.08.2022

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar.

No of Participants: UG &PG 130 students

Objective:

- The objective of conducting this program is to welcome traditionally new students to the college community.
- It also provides a platform for the senior students to warmly welcome the freshers to the vibrant and diverse college culture.
- The main objective of celebrating Freshers Day is to create an inclusive and joyful environment that fosters friendships and sociability among students, promotes interactions between faculty and students, and eases the transformation of freshers into college life.

Program

- The event was structured in three categories: Dancing, Singing, Drama, Stand Up Comedy & the main event, Mr. & Ms. Freshers of Vivek PG College 2023.
- The singing competition was categorized between group impromptu solo singing, and the crowd was mesmerized by the amount of talent the students portrayed with their melodious voices and Jhankar beats.
- Drama sessions were also organized because drama doesn't just boost the students' confidence; it develops their communication skills and strengthens them. It also improves their academic performance.
- The event further entered its main joyous stage, stating the various types of fashion styles and clothing based on the theme of Mr. and Ms. Fresher's 2023. The participants had three rounds, including elimination. The fashion show was focused mainly on confidence, chemistry with their partners, and the ability to carry themselves, followed by a question-and-answer round.

Outcomes:

- The Fresher's Day celebration at Vivek PG College was a remarkable event that joyfully and inclusively celebrated the beginning of a new academic year.
- The event was a testament to the college's commitment to providing all students with a welcoming and supportive environment.

Dear Faculties and students,

Janmashtami or Gokulashtami – The birth of Lord Krishna is an important festival and a grand celebration in India. As we eagerly prepare for another year of Krishna Janmashtami celebration in College, it's essential to remember that this festive occasion is not merely about rituals and sweets; it's a profound opportunity to impart valuable life lessons to our students. Lord Krishna, the embodiment of wisdom, courage, and responsibility, is an exemplary role model for all young minds striving for success and responsibility. To seek the blessings of Lord Krishna, the festival of Janmashtami will be celebrated at Vivek PG College Jaipur on August 17, 2022. All the students, teachers, staff, and guardians were cordially invited to participate in this program.

Report on Program of Krishna Janmashtami conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 17.08.2022

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar.

No of Participants: UG &PG 30 students

Objective:

- The festive engages students in festive cheer but also helps them learn about the values and teachings of Krishna.
- These celebrations offer a valuable opportunity to instill moral values and foster a deeper understanding of spiritual lessons in young minds.
- Krishna's wisdom teaches students that learning is a lifelong journey, and the more we know, the better equipped we are to make responsible decisions.
- Lord Krishna symbolized self-confidence and belief in one's abilities. His unwavering faith in himself and his destiny empowered him to achieve greatness. Encouraging our students to believe in themselves and their dreams is a crucial lesson for success.

Program:

- Various joyous activities like drawing, painting, singing, dancing, decorating markets, and clay modeling added a traditional touch to the celebration.
- Students were made aware of Indian tradition, customs, and culture by conducting Mukut-making activities. The students were engaged in creating Lord Krishna's favorite flute, which was later decorated with peacock feathers.
- The day ended sweetly when all the students and staff partook in the special Janmashtami laddoos.
- The celebration was indeed truly informative, enlightening, and entertaining, all the same

Outcome:

- Through these activities, students gain insight into Krishna's virtues and reflect on how to implement these principles in their lives.
- The program's goal was to encourage the students to gain a greater appreciation of the eternal values of Krishna and to encourage students to emulate the same values in their daily lives.
- Through celebrating Janmashtami and taking inspiration from Krishna's life, students can apply these ideals and impact their lives and the world surrounding them.

Report on Programm on Independence Day conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 15th August 2022

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar

No of Participants: UG &PG 30 students

Objective:

- The program's main objective is to serve as a reminder of the values of liberty, justice, and democracy that the nation stands for, and it inspires students to contribute to the ongoing progress and prosperity of the country.

Program:

- Flag Hoisting Ceremony: At the beginning of the day, the director, Mr. Vishal Dhaka, and the principal, Mr. NK Bhakar, held a flag-hoisting ceremony. They accompanied the ceremony with the national anthem and a brief speech about the importance of Independence Day.
- Patriotic Song and Dance Performances: Students performed traditional dances and contemporary routines and sang songs that reflected the spirit of independence. This entertains and educates students about the country's cultural heritage.
- Independence Day: Parade: Students dressed in traditional attire or costumes representing national heroes and freedom fighters. The parade can include banners, flags, and themed floats to create a festive atmosphere.
- Historical Reenactments: Students participate in reenactments of significant events from the country's struggle for independence. These dramatizations included famous speeches, pivotal battles, and critical historical moments, helping students understand the sacrifices made for freedom. An exhibition showcased students' artwork and crafts related to Independence Day. This included paintings, drawings, posters, and 3D models depicting national symbols, landmarks, and historical events.

Outcomes

- By organizing engaging and meaningful events, the college instills a sense of patriotism and national pride in students.
- By fostering creativity, teamwork, and a deeper understanding of the country's heritage, the college ensures that Independence Day is a memorable and enriching experience for all students.
