The Report on the Program of Krishna Janmashtami celebration conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 05.09.2023

Venue: Auditorium, Vivek P G College, Kalwar

No of Participants: UG&PG 35 students.

Objective:

1. By celebrating Krishna Janmashtami, students can gain a deeper appreciation for cultural diversity, moral values, historical context, and artistic expressions.
2. To provide an opportunity for students to expand their horizons beyond textbooks and learn about the rich tapestry of human culture and spirituality.

Program

- Decorations: The college premises were beautifully decorated with vibrant flowers, traditional rangoli, and festoons. A unique altar was set up with images of Lord Krishna, and a lively, colorful atmosphere was created through conventional decorations.
- Cultural Performances: The celebration began with cultural performances. Students showcased their talents through devotional songs, dances, and skits portraying episodes from Krishna's life. The highlight was a dramatic reenactment of Krishna's childhood exploits, which was met with great appreciation.
- Religious Observances: The college's spiritual committee conducted a special puja (prayer). Students and faculty actively participated in the aarti (ritual of worship with light) and offered prayers, expressing their devotion and seeking blessings for peace and prosperity.
- Prasad Distribution: Delicious Prasad (offerings) were prepared and distributed among the attendees. Traditional sweets and snacks were served, adding to the festive spirit. Students enjoyed their tasty Prasad.
- Interactive Sessions & Short Quiz: An engaging session on the significance of Krishna Janmashtami and the teachings of Lord Krishna was conducted. This session aimed to educate participants about the cultural and spiritual importance of the festival. Winners were awarded with prizes who responded correctly.

Report on Program on Independence Day conducted by Vivek P G College, Kalwar

Date: 15th August 2023

Venue: Auditorium & College ground of Vivek P G College, Kalwar.

No of Participants: UG & PG 30 students

Objectives

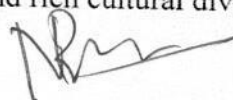

1. The main objective of Celebrating Independence Day is to make students commemorate India's independence from British rule and honor the sacrifices of freedom fighters. It aims to instill patriotism, national pride, and a sense of responsibility among students.
2. To Engage students in community service activities such as clean-up drives, planting trees, or visiting local shelters. These programs teach students the importance of civic responsibility and community contribution.

Program

1. Chanting the "Shabad - Satguru Nanak Pargateya" to invoke the Almighty's blessings marked the session's beginning. To immerse themselves in the Independence Day theme, several students dressed in tricolors for their virtual backdrops. They eagerly engaged in this exercise and created lovely posters.
2. On August 15, students participated in "Rangoli Making." They created exquisite "rangolis" to display their skill and inventiveness. After commemorating the Almighty, the congregation began with a "rangoli-making activity."
3. In celebration of Independence Day, the students participated with all their energy and excitement, creating virtual backdrops and dressing in tricolors to demonstrate their love and respect for the country.
4. On the celebration of Independence Day, the students graduates were exposed to various patriotic songs, including Ae Watan, Saare Jahan Se, Teri Mitti, etc. Following this, students were encouraged to feel patriotic by singing the National Anthem.

Outcomes:

1. These exercises encourage our students to discover and comprehend the real meaning of freedom, instill a sense of patriotism in our students, and make them love their nation.
2. Through various activities, children learned about the history and rich cultural diversity of Indian civilization.
